

suggested in your letter. Also please note that the possibility to include the field of particle physics phenomenology as a new subdiscipline is currently examined.

I would hope that the above demonstrates that your preoccupations regarding the outcome of the recent evaluation are shared by the Commission and that you and your colleagues will still be motivated to participate in one of the forthcoming calls of the Marie Curie actions.

Yours sincerely,

Philippe Busquin
Director General
Directorate General for Research and Innovation
Via Pietro Giuria 1
10135 Torino
Italy

Philippe Busquin